

Professional Learning Strategic Goal Setting QuickStart

Below is the flow of questions we recommend district leaders consider to begin the process of aligning a professional learning strategy with their district's desired goals and outcomes. The insights surfaced from these questions can be used to develop the primary goals and beginning steps of a micro-credential implementation plan.

- 1. What are the instructional goals we are seeking to achieve by revamping our professional learning strategy?

Key Takeaways:

- 2. What are the learning culture goals we are seeking to achieve by revamping our professional learning strategy?

Key Takeaways:

- 3. Why are these goals important to our district? How are they connected to our larger district priorities?

Key Takeaways:

- 4. Who is the target audience for our new professional learning strategy?

Key Takeaways:

- 5. What current efforts are already underway that are intended to achieve these goals?

Key Takeaways:

- 6. What are the gaps and obstacles, from funding to institutional messaging, that are currently or could possibly be keeping us from achieving these goals?

Key Takeaways:

- 7. To what extent can addressing professional learning systems help us reach our goals? Are there other challenges that must be addressed besides our professional learning systems to fully realize these goals?

Key Takeaways:

