

MICRO-CREDENTIALS

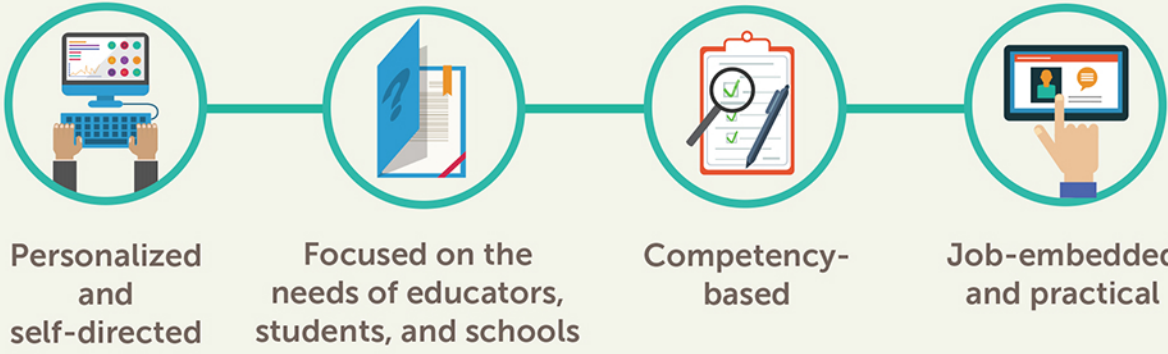

Competency-Based Recognition for Educators

“I’m always learning, formally and informally, and I apply that knowledge daily. Micro-credentials give me recognition for that learning.”

Design Principles for Professional Learning

High-quality educator preparation and ongoing professional learning opportunities should be:

My Professional Learning Journey using Micro-credentials

Learn for me

Micro-credentials help me grow professionally as I take on new responsibilities and challenges.

Learn for my students

I want to meet the needs of all my students, engage in new topics, and use new technologies. Micro-credentials help me become a better educator and adapt to new environments.

Recognize my accomplishments

I've spent my career developing these skills. Micro-credentials validate my skills, increase my confidence, identify me as a resource for my colleagues.
