

Verizon Innovative Learning Schools Instructional Coach Expectations

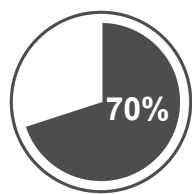

The Verizon Innovative Learning Schools (VILS) instructional coach is a full-time position with the primary responsibility for implementation of the VILS program at the school level. The VILS coach provides teachers with pedagogical support to effectively leverage technology in the classroom.

All images used with permission from Noun Project

1:1 Coaching Expectations

Spend 70% of the school day working with or on the behalf of teachers

Implement coaching model

Visit 4+ classrooms daily/attend PLC meetings

Track teacher/student progress via notes & other data

Professional Development Expectations

Participate in virtual trainings / webinars

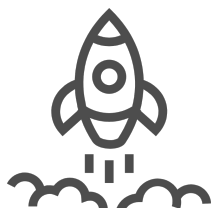

Participate in Coach Pathway

Join 1:1 ADPL syncs

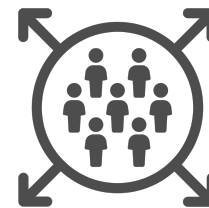

Other Expectations

Successfully leverage VILS to meet district/school goals

Participate in and help facilitate required surveys

Build teacher leaders for sustainability