

This document crosswalks the definition of global competence, as defined by the Asia Society (http://asiasociety.org/files/book-globalcompetence.pdf) to the Common Career Technical Core (CCTC), a state-led initiative to establish a set of rigorous, high-quality standards for Career Technical Education, managed by Advance CTE (https://www.careertech.org/cctc). The definition of global competence and the CCTC were developed separately by state education leaders as well as diverse groups of teachers, business and industry experts, administrators, and researchers.

1	Explain the purpose and functions of government and public administration and the application of democratic principles in the process of governmental and administrative policymaking.	x		x		Use the basic government lesson on the website Learning to Give, to discuss the types of governments and the levels of governments; the handouts can be modified to accommodate different language used for the levels of government in different areas of the world. An alternative assignment would be to have students investigate different countries/regions and identify the types and levels of government in place. The "Types of Government" lesson plan from Study.com provides an alternative approach to discussion of the types and levels of government.	http://www.learningtogive.org/units/philantlropy%E2%80%94essential-democratic-society/what-government#lesson-overview http://study.com/academy/popular/types-ofgovernment-lesson-plan.html
2	Analyze the systemic relationships of government and public administration agencies.	x				Have students jigsaw Chapter 1, "Rethinking Public Administration: An Overview." Have students discuss how the key points they read are reflected or missing from a country/regions of the world that they are studying. Alternative article for jigsaw: World Public Sector Report 2015: Responsive and Accountable Public Government, Chapters 1–3.	http://www.unpan.org/Portals/0/60yrhistory documents/Publications/Rethinking%20publi %20administration.PDF https://publicadministration.un.org/publicati ns/content/PDFs/World%20Public%20Sectors 20Report2015.pdf
3	Describe health, safety, and environmental management systems, as well as policies and procedures in government and public administration agencies.	х				Have students use the World Health Organization website to investigate the health, safety, and environmental systems in place in a given country. Prepare a short presentation on what students learned. Have a discussion comparing and contrasting the systems in different countries.	http://www.who.int/countries/en/
4	Describe the implementation of plans and policies to respond to public health, safety, and environmental needs in government and public administration agencies.	х				Have students use the World Health Organization website to investigate the implementation of health, safety, and environmental systems in place in a given country.
