

Digital Promise and Yourway Learning Partner to Transform Learning Experiences for All Students

Empowering Educators with AI Tools to Foster Inclusive and Personalized Learning

WASHINGTON (Jan. 16, 2025) – Digital Promise and Yourway Learning (Formerly LINC, the Learning Innovation Catalyst) are partnering to ensure that all learners receive the highest quality learning experiences that meet their unique needs. With the assistance of Yourway’s Digital Promise LVN Literacy lesson planning tool, this incredible framework becomes more accessible for every teacher to effectively integrate strategies for learner variability into their lessons in a matter of minutes. This is a game changing opportunity to leverage AI technology to bring true equity and differentiation into every classroom for each learner.

“Teachers have told us they need the time and ongoing professional learning opportunities to introduce learner variability in their classrooms, said Barbara Pape, Senior Director of Digital Promise’s Learner Variability Project. “LVN/Yourway, replete with robust learning sciences research-based classroom strategies, can make creating personalized lesson plans more efficient for teachers and effective for students.” Combining the AI technology of Yourway with the unmatched research, methodology and reach of Digital Promise provides an opportunity for significant impact at scale. When used effectively, Digital Promise’s Learner Variability Navigator Tool is able to support teachers in understanding and supporting their individual learner’s cognitive development, social emotional capacities, and their background.

“This partnership builds AI support that has an immediate and unlimited impact on learning. AI, used intentionally and practically, has the potential to dramatically increase the level of personalization each student receives,” said Jason Green, Co-Founder of Yourway Learning. “Yourway and the Digital Promise Learner Navigator Tool is an example of the promise of technology in action.”

About Digital Promise

Digital Promise is a global nonprofit working to expand opportunity for every learner. We work with educators, researchers, technology leaders, and communities to design, investigate, and scale innovations that support learners, especially those who've been historically and systematically excluded. Our vision is that every person engages in powerful learning experiences that lead to a life of well-being, fulfillment, and economic mobility.
